The Town of Caledon, like many rural communities has a growing job market but lacks the population and transit system to support the employers. We worked with Town planners and managers to devise a localized transit system to help fill those vacant jobs. BOLTON Line, Caledon's dedicated link to the neighbouring ZUUM

Voyago provides Town of Caledon with transit service focused on job market.

Transit, brings a much needed workforce into the region everyday, on a closed fixed and flex type service. BOLTON Line has stops throughout the downtown core and stops throughout the industrial zone.

Grand River Transit and Voyago bridge the gap to rural neighbours of Baden.

Route 77 of the Grand River Transit system was designed to bring vitality, and economic opportunity to adjacent regions. In a partnership with Voyago, GRT collaborated with local developers, Voyago and residents to create the ideal model, community link transit system. Route 77 helps town residents get access to services and support across the district. These types of important links help inspire housing development, retail development and improve opportunities for all in the region.
